Prostitution is the business or practice of engaging in sexual activity in exchange for payment. Prostitution is sometimes described as sexual services, commercial sex or, colloquially, hooking. It is sometimes referred to euphemistically as "the world's oldest profession" in the English-speaking world. A person who works in this field is called a prostitute, and is a type of sex worker.

A meretrix (plural: meretrices) was a higher class, registered female prostitute; the more pejorative scortum could be used for prostitutes of either gender. Unregistered, lower class or casual prostitutes fell under the broad category prostibulae. Although both women and men might engage male or female prostitutes, evidence for female prostitution is the more ample.
