Governors of the Territory of Idaho. Idaho Territory was created from Dakota Territory, Nebraska Territory, and Washington Territory on March 4, 1863.. Due to the long distance between Washington, D.C. and Boise, there was often a lengthy gap between a governor being appointed and his arrival in the territory; four resigned before even arriving.

List of Governors of Idaho - Wikipedia

A governor is, in most cases, a public official with the power to govern the executive branch of a non-sovereign or sub-national level of government, ranking under the head of state. In federations, governor may be the title of a politician who governs a constituent state and may be either appointed or elected. The power of the individual governor can vary dramatically between political systems ...
